

Kootenai County Building and Planning Fun Facts.

- Q: What is an Agricultural building?
- A: Any structure that is used solely for growing, raising or producing plants, animals or crops. This structure cannot be used for human habitation.

- Q: What is an Agriculture Exempt Building? Do I qualify?
- A: If your parcel is assessed with one of these exemptions and you wish to construct an Agricultural exempt building, you qualify: Irrigated, Non-irrigated, Meadow-Graze, or Dry Graze.

- Q: Do I still need a building permit?
- A: Yes, you will still need to apply for a building permit the same as any other permit, however, no plans will be required and no building permit plan review fee or building inspections will be charged. The building must be in conformance with all other County Ordinances including, the Site Disturbance Ordinance, Zoning Ordinance, and comply with other agencies' requirements.
