

Moorage Reservation Rules and Conditions

Please Note: An Event Permit is required for events with more than 100 participants.

- If your event includes special entertainment such as a bouncy house, hired catering, or other services provided by a for-profit vendor, proof of liability insurance of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) naming Kootenai County as an additional insured may be required as determined by the Director of the Parks and Waterways Department (Director). Insurance requirement and insurance amount determinations shall be in the sole discretion of the Director.
 - General Liability Insurance must provide that Kootenai County, its officers, agents, and employees are named additional insured for all coverage provided by the policy of insurance and shall be fully and completely protected by the policy from all claims.
 - Insurance companies used for purposes of an Event Permit shall be rated A-VII or better in the A.M. Best Rating Guide.
- All reservations are first-come, first-served. We do not hold or pencil in reservations without payment.
- Moorage reservations are only for those boats specifically listed by registration number.
- Kootenai County Facilities are "Pack it in, pack it out", meaning no refuse containers are available and are not provided for County properties subject to reservations or Event permits.
- Quiet Hours are between 10 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. such that noise levels are not audible more than 100 feet from the sound origination point and/or the ordinary high water mark.
- Rafting vessels that are moored at a county dock is prohibited.
- No refunds will be issued.
- Your reservation is for moorage only. All other site amenities are for use by the general public.
- All County rules, regulations and procedures governing Kootenai County parks and programs, and all federal, state, county, and municipal laws, ordinances or regulations that are applicable to the area shall be obeyed, including but not limited to Kootenai County Code §§6-2-9 and 6-2-10. Failure to comply with County rules, regulations, and procedures governing Kootenai County parks and programs; federal, state, county, and municipal laws, ordinances or regulations; and listed guidelines, rules, regulations, and special instructions may result in rejection of subsequent applications by the Person Responsible and/or sponsor. Violations may constitute an infraction or misdemeanor and result in civil and criminal penalties.
- Dogs are allowed but must be kept on a leash at all times.
- No unlawful discharge of firearms at any time.
- No Fireworks.
- The posting of banners, posters, fliers, and other such items is not permitted without written approval.
- The Director may cancel a Reservation where the Person Responsible fails to comply with any or all provisions, terms, conditions, or other rules and/or special instructions, and where Person Responsible through willful or unreasonable neglect fails to heed or comply with notices given. No refund shall be available in the event of such cancellation.
