Media Release – For immediate release

In an effort to maintain operational capacity, the Kootenai County Assessor and Treasurer offices in the County Administration Building are restricting physical access to the public pending further notification.

Treasurer office services are available to the public by phone, website or in person by appointment only. Please call 208-446-1005 or by email kctr@kcgov.us to schedule an appointment. You may look up and pay your property taxes on the Kootenai County website at www.kcgov.us

Assessor office services, including general property ownership and valuation information, Tax Reduction Benefit (Circuit Breaker, Disabled Veteran), Exemption applications (Homeowner, Timber, Agricultural) are still available to the public by calling 208-446-1500, by email kcassr@kcgov.us, or on the County website at www.kcgov.us. Exemption related documentation can be faxed to 208-446-1501.

Vehicle Licensing (registration and title) is by appointment only via the QLESS system or by calling either the Coeur d'Alene or Post Falls locations. The Idaho Transportation Department has issued a 90-day deferral on expiring vehicle credentials in an effort to preserve public safety and keep essential government services operating.

Services from these offices are available as follows:

County Treasurer – 208-446-1005

Treasurer FAX 208-446-1017

County Assessor – 208-446-1500
