Evening Briefing Report

Kootenai County, Idaho: Following the evening briefing of the Kootenai County Emergency Operations Center Unified Command, there is no new information to be released.

As of 5:20 p.m. the current situation in Kootenai County remains unchanged – there are no confirmed cases of COVID-19, but numerous being monitored. For the State of Idaho, there are a total of eleven confirmed cases; three in Ada County, five in Blaine County, one in Madison County, one in Teton County and one in Twin Falls.

Kootenai Health is seeing an increase in mental health calls that are being received. As a result they have provided the following website www.northidahconnections.org. When you open the website, you will enter your zip code and the site will show resources that are available. This site is not just for substance or mental health, but also financial assistance, food resources, etc.

Further information will be released when available.
