Media Release

For Immediate Release

Assessor's Office Temporary Closure

December 9, 2020 – Effective immediately, the Kootenai County Assessor's main office (located on the 2nd floor of the Kootenai County Administrative Building) will be temporarily closed to the public, pending further notification, due to a positive COVID-19 event and the need to exercise precaution on behalf of our employees and the citizens of Kootenai County.

Customers that received service in the Assessor's Office on Monday, December 7th, 2020, could be at risk for COVID-19 exposure. Anyone having visited the office that day should consult their health care providers if they have questions concerning their health.

Limited services will continue to be made available via email (kcassr@kcgov.us) during this temporary closure, as well as through the Assessor's webpage on the County website (www.kcgov.us). We are asking for property owners seeking to file a Homeowner's Exemption to please wait until the reopening of the Assessor's Office. We expect the office to remain closed for at least one week. Updates will be posted to the county website and to our Facebook page (Kootenai County Government).
